

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Norman and Edith Jesfield began the celebration of life together as husband and wife in Nineteen Hundred and Thirty-Seven; and,

WHEREAS, their marriage has spanned half a century of service and devotion to their family, friends and neighbors; and,

WHEREAS, through their lifelong dedication to the values of caring and sharing, Norman and Edith Jesfield have helped make South Dakota a great place to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, on August 16th in Lodgepole at the Lodgepole Hall, there was an occasion of great joy and celebration as friends and loved ones gathered to honor Norman and Edith; and,

WHEREAS, it is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognize and commemorate the memorable milestones in the lives of the State's outstanding citizens:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 16, 1987, as in South Dakota, and I join with the honored couple's family and friends in wishing them continued health and happiness in a state that stands prouder today because of their contributions and commitment.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Fifth Day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

JOYCE RASMUSSEN, SECRETARY OF STATE
